Readings for Sunday, February 5, Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time: Is 58:7-10; 1 Cor 2:1-5; Mt 5:13-16

Please remember in your prayers all those members of our parish family who are sick or suffering in any way, all those in hospitals or nursing homes, and all our shut-ins. We pray for all those who have died recently, including Margaret Powers. Let us not forget the victims of violence at home and abroad. We remember the men and women serving in the armed forces and their families, as we continue to pray for peace.

The Evangelist

To stay informed about our Catholic faith and news of our Diocese, read The Evangelist, our Albany Diocesan newspaper. To subscribe, please call 584-2375.

It is in our family where we learn to be merciful and comforting to others. The Beatitudes of the Kingdom of God begin at home and depend on you. Parents lead the way.

Which of the Beatitudes most typifies your spouse—living simply, grieving, humility, hunger for righteousness, merciful, acts with integrity in the face of temptations, peacemaking works for justice despite personal attacks (Mt 5:1-12).

March for Life—envision a world where every human life is valued and protected. Help your children understand the importance of protecting life, no matter how small, by some act of solidarity with children younger than themselves today.

We at the Hadley Luzerne School and community are soooooo very grateful for your generosity, in assisting folks to be the best they can be. As you know, to see the relief in someone's eyes when a need is unexpectedly met, the "giver" is also richly blessed. Your outreach over the years has made it possible for so many, to not only survive, but to strive for more self development. May God bless you and your families for your effort, because HE said, "The Poor will always be with you". Earlyne C. Payne, School Nurse
