Please remember in your prayers all those members of our parish family who are sick or suffering in any way, all those in hospitals or nursing homes, and all our shut-ins. We pray for all those who have died recently, including Roland LaFarr and Maureen McGarvey. Let us not forget the victims of violence at home and abroad. We remember the men and women serving in the armed forces and their families, as we continue to pray for peace.

To experience the peace which Christ promises we must shed our grudges, jealousy and feelings of being misunderstood, unappreciated or ignored. Peace and anger don't mix. Today's gospel warns, if you want peace in your heart and home, get rid of your anger. Anger is too costly.

Valentine's Day. Jesus continually urges us to go beyond the letter of the law. He interprets "You shall not kill" (Mt. 5) as "Don't be angry." "You shall not commit adultery" might be interpreted as "Show your spouse that they come first and you love him/her wholeheartedly. Go the extra mile for your beloved today. Find a way to stretch your love.

Black History Month. The past few years have been tumultuous for race relations. Few people think of themselves as racist, but do you or your children have friends of a different race? It may feel awkward but find a way to meet someone who looks different than you this week. Perhaps go to a church, store, or neighborhood where people gather who look different from you.

Month's Mind

As part of our 175th anniversary observance, The Church of Saint Peter prepared a Parish Necrology. Since then we have used that daily listing of the deceased of our church to call to mind those of our community who have died. Remembering them on the anniversary of their passing away keeps us conscious of their continued presence among us.

There is another traditional date for remembering the deceased in the Catholic tradition, and that occurs one month following the death of a Christian. It is called the "Month's Mind", since it is then that the church deliberately "calls to mind" one who has passed. During this month of November which, beginning with the feasts of All Saints and All Souls, is especially focused on our dearly departed, the Church of Saint Peter will be adding the observance of the Month's Mind to our liturgical schedule. One month after the death of a parishioner, the family will be invited back to the church for liturgy that they might be reminded of God's continued presence with them, and of the prayerful support of our parish during these days of grief. At those liturgies, we will present to the family a Prayer Shawl created in a setting of prayer by parish members.

As we begin again to keep this custom, let us always keep the deceased and the grieving in our prayer together.
