Readings for Sunday, April 10, Third Sunday of Easter: Acts 5:27-32, 40b-41; Rv 5:11-14; Jn 21:1-19

Please remember in your prayers all those members of our parish family who are sick or suffering in any way, all those in hospitals or nursing homes, and all our shut-ins. We pray for all who have died recently. Let us not forget the victims of violence at home and abroad. We remember the men and women serving in the armed forces and their families, as we continue to pray for peace.

Family Perspectives
By Bud Ozar

Jesus connects PEACE and FORGIVENESS in today's gospel. In our families we will only experience peace to the extent we forgive one another. Peace is purchased with the currency of forgiveness. When we allow our anger and pride to lock our others, we also lock out peace and harmony.

Marriage Moments
www.Susan Vogt.net

"Peace by with you." (John 20:21) All married couples hurt one another at one time or another. When minor large, it still can hurt. Offering forgiveness can bring peace to you both. Is there anything left unforgiven in your marriage? Make peace.

Parenting Pointers
www.Susan Vogt.net

April 1: (April Fools Day) Laughter can be healing. Does your family have any stories about family foibles that get repeated at family gatherings? It doesn't matter that its embarrassing; it becomes family mythology. Let your child play a joke on you today.
