Please remember in your prayers all those members of our parish family who are sick or suffering in any way, all those in hospitals or nursing homes, and all our shut-ins. We remember the men and women serving in the armed forces and their families, as we continue to pray for peace.

Family Perspectives
By Bud Ozar
Jesus tells us in the gospel: "I am the Father and the Father is in me!" The point is: God is in each one of us, in our relationships and in our homes. The vocation of the Christian family is to live the divine gift which is already in and around us.

Marriage Moments
www.Susan Vogt.net
"No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends." (Jn 15:30) In addition to Jesus, who has given their life for you? In addition to Jesus, who has given their life for you? Perhaps it is your mother, or someone who has been like a mother to you. As a spouse, be mindful of laying down your life each day for your beloved.

Parenting Pointers
www.Susan Vogt.net
"the stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone." (1 Peter 2:7) Do you or your child ever feel rejected? Sooner or later everyone has this experience. It doesn't feel good but it's not the end of the world. When appropriate, share with your child a time that you felt rejected and how you grew from it.

 The Saratogian April 14, 2017 Sound Off Column:
 “During the season of spring and Easter, all should appreciate Broadway’s historic Church of St. Peter as their treasured and priceless bell rings loudly once again throughout Saratoga Springs. It rang as countless masses, weddings, funerals and at the conclusion of numerous wars and conflicts. Music now chimes daily and prior to all weekend liturgies. Regardless of one’s faith, all can enjoy the bell as it conveys a true message of peace at this time needed more than ever.”
