Readings for Sunday, May 29, The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ: Gn 14:18-20; 1 Cor 11:23-26; Lk 9:11b-17

Please remember in your prayers all those members of our parish family who are sick or suffering in any way, all those in hospitals or nursing homes, and all our shut-ins. We pray for all who have died recently. Let us not forget the victims of violence at home and abroad. We remember the men and women serving in the armed forces and their families, as we continue to pray for peace.

Family Perspectives
By Bud Ozar

The words of Jesus in today's gospel, "I have many things to say to you, but you cannot hear them now." could have been said by any parent. It can be frustrating because our desire to guide is often misinterpreted or poorly received. We cannot program our children. We can only teach, lead and trust the Spirit of truth will guide them.

Marriage Moments
www.Susan Vogt.net

How do you get your spouse to really talk? Try pulling out their high school yearbook, your wedding album, or family videos and look at them together. Ask stuff like "What was your favorite memory?" or "What did you like most about that?"

Parenting Pointers
www.Susan Vogt.net

"The Spirit of truth will guide you to all truth." (John 16:13) We humans may be tempted to lie, or at least bend the truth, when we are afraid. Talk with your child about times when it might be hard to tell the truth. Perhaps share a time that was difficult for you.

Anointing of the Sick May 24, 1:00 pm

No one is exempt from sickness and suffering, it is apart of the human condition. It is not surprising, therefore, that Jesus devoted so much of his ministry to those who were sick. One of the ways that the Church continues that ministry is through the Anointing at a Eucharist to be celebrated on Tuesday, May 24, at 1:00 pm in the Church. Anyone who is suffering from physical or emotional weakness, anticipating surgery or has grown frail through age is invited to join us at that Liturgy.

Memorial Day Mass and Observance ~ Monday, May 30, 9:00 am

A day to pause in Remembrance and Respect. Please join us for Mass at 9:00 am followed by a Memorial Day Observance.
