Readings for Sunday, July 16, Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time: Is 55:10-11;Rom 8:18-23:Mt 13:1-23

Please remember in your prayers all those members of our parish family who are sick or suffering in any way, all those in hospitals or nursing homes, and all our shut-ins. We pray for all those who have died recently. Let us not forget the victims of violence at home and abroad. We remember the men and women serving in the armed forces and their families, as we continue to pray for peace.

Family Perspectives
By Bud Ozar
Today's gospel is about missionaries. As Jesus received a mission today, parents accept the mission of raising a family. Parents are not alone in this exhausting and difficult mission. Today Jesus tells us "Come to me and I will give you rest."

Marriage Moments
www.Susan Vogt.net
"Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened..." (Mt.11:29)
One grace of marriage is having a partner who is there for us when one of us feels burdened or discouraged. We may not always respond perfectly, but the opportunity is there. Is there anything burdening your beloved these days?

Parenting Pointers

"...although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned, you have revealed them to little ones." (Mt 11:25) What have you recently learned from your child?

Prayer during the Summer

Great God, you dress the world in summertime and paint the sky with stars. You write your story on our lives and guide the ways of all.

Give us a wider sense of wonder, that we may unwrap the world like a gift, always thanking you for your goodness and living in love with our neighbors, in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
