Readings for Sunday, September 18, Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time: Am 8:4-7; 1 Tm 2:1-8; Lk 16:1-13

Please remember in your prayers all those members of our parish family who are sick or suffering in any way, all those in hospitals or nursing homes, and all our shut-ins. We pray for all who have died recently, including Thomas Waldron, brother of Terry Waldron, and Jack Derby. Let us not forget the victims of violence at home and abroad. We remember the men and women serving in the armed forces and their families, as we continue to pray for peace.

Family Perspectives
By Bud Ozar

Parents are like that shepherd in today's gospel for they don't give up and can't rest if one of their children has wandered away. A parent's persistent love provides a glimpse of the unconditional love for each of us by God, Our Father. A parent is a window to the divine.

Marriage Moments
www.Susan Vogt.net

September 11, 2001 took most people by surprise. You don't know the time or the place you or your beloved will die. Take advantage of the time you have today to show your love.

Parenting Pointers
www.Susan Vogt.net

"I will make your descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky." (Exodus 32:13) No matter the number of children you have, each one is a promise for the future. Do something to make the world better for your offspring today. (recycle, donate to a cause, make peace with someone).

Wanted: Disciples of Jesus Christ

Do you know someone who is not baptized and has yet to hear the good news of God's love?

Are you someone who has been baptized but never received the sacraments of Eucharist (Holy Communion) and Confirmation?

Is there something preventing you from being a disciple and sharing the Eucharist with the Community at Sunday Mass?

Our discipleship process begins this month. We welcome every person who desires to journey to full discipleship in the RCIA process to call Deacon Ed at the parish office.

Take this first step for yourself or help someone you know take it. It will change your life or someone else's life forever!

A Prayer for Our Earth

All-powerful God, you are present in the whole universe and in the smallest of your creatures. You embrace with your tenderness all that exists.

Pour out upon us the power of your love, that we may protect life and beauty. Fill us with peace, that we may live as brothers and sisters, harming no one.

O God of the poor, help us to rescue the abandoned and forgotten of this earth, so precious in your eyes.

Bring healing to our lives, that we may protect the world and not prey on it, that we may sow beauty, not pollution and destruction.

Touch the hearts of those who look only for gain at the expense of the poor and the earth. Teach us to discover the worth of each thing, to be filled with awe and contemplation, to recognize that we are profoundly united with every creature as we journey towards your infinite light. We thank you for being with us each day. Encourage us, we pray, in our struggle for justice, love and peace.
