Readings for Sunday, October 16, Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time: Ex 17:8-13; 2 Tm 3:14-4:2; Lk 18:1-8

Please remember in your prayers all those members of our parish family who are sick or suffering in any way, all those in hospitals or nursing homes, and all our shut-ins. We pray for all who have died recently, including Paula Langdon. Let us not forget the victims of violence at home and abroad. We remember the men and women serving in the armed forces and their families, as we continue to pray for peace.

Everyone needs "A Round Tuit." The lepers in today's gospel probably meant to thank Jesus. Excited about being cured they didn't get 'around-to-it." We get caught up in our own interest and fail to appreciate what we have or to say what is in our hearts. This week get yourself a "Round Tuit".

"Only one leper returned to give thanks to God." (Luke 17:18) Gratitude is a popular poster virtue these days, but inspiration does not always translate into action. Today do two acts of gratitude. #1: Notice and thank your beloved for an act of kindness. #: Note a problem in your life. Turn it around by imagining how it could have been worse. Thank God.

"Moses' hands grew tired." (Ex 17:12) We all grow tired at some point in life. (Even kids eventually get tired of crying.) When this happens we need the support of those close to us. Ask your family to lighten another member's load in some way this week.

Festival of Trees

The crafty teens in our Confirmation Preparation program will again be decorating items for the Festival of Trees December 1-4, which benefits Catholic Charities. "Crafty" adults are invited to join them November 19 from 1 to 4 pm in the Parish Center to decorate table top trees and door wreaths for the Festival Sale. The teens have plenty of ornaments and rolls of ribbon, but could use holiday picks and stuffers to trim out the wreaths and trees. If you have some, or see a bargain out there, please drop them off at the church office or call Patty Poulette, Youth Ministry to make arrangements for pick up. To sign up and for more details, call Patty Poulette (587-5182). Many hands make light work..... and loads of fun!

Anointing of the Sick

No one is exempt from sickness and suffering, it is a part of the human condition. It is not surprising, therefore, that Jesus devoted to much of his ministry to those who were sick. One of the ways that the Church continues that ministry is through the Anointing of the Sick.

The Church of Saint Peter will celebrate that Sacramental Anointing at a Eucharist to be celebrated on Wednesday, October 12, at 1:00 pm in Church.

Anyone who is suffering from physical or emotional weakness, anticipating surgery or has grown frail through age is invited to join us at that Liturgy

Community Care

This weekend, the second full weekend of the month, we are asked to bring personal care or cleaning items to be left in the bin in the vestibule of Church. These items are given, in turn, by our Church to one of the several agencies that support people in need

St. Peter's Prayer Line

The Prayer Line list updated for the month, is available in the Day Chapel for members in this Ministry to pick up this weekend. All are invited to be a part of this quiet, but powerful Ministry, spending a few minutes a day in prayer, praying for the needs of others. Many members receive the daily requests by email each day, or if requested, by a brief telephone call.

This Ministry began over 15 years ago by two dear friends who began to pray together and now has over 180 people and is growing. This ministry is powerful, and brings comfort and peace to so many. If you would like to be a part of this Ministry, please contact prayerline241@gmail.com.

Ministry Fair

A Ministry Fair was held last month inviting all to learn more about Liturgical ministries...with very pleasing results! Another Ministry Fair with additional Ministries is being held this weekend! Look for them after Church today!!

Baby bottles were handed to each family, asked to be taken home, filled with coins, cash, or checks and then returned this week. (October 8-9). Your gift may be made in honor of a special person, whose name and address you list on the insert in the bottle. Birthright will then mail a beautifully designed card to the person being honored.
